Step 3 – Documentation

To be eligible to withdraw or transfer the funds from your account, you must have emigrated (or be about to emigrate) permanently from New Zealand.

To confirm this, please provide all applicable proof with your application:

- Proof of your departure from New Zealand (e.g. flight details, a copy of your immigration movement records, or other travel documents)
- If you have already left New Zealand, you must provide proof that you have lived at an overseas address at some time during the year following your departure (i.e. a bank statement or utility bill)
- Proof of your visa for living in another country, if applicable (e.g. a photocopy of the visa)
- If evidence you are supplying indicates you have temporarily returned to New Zealand since permanently emigrating (e.g. for a holiday), please indicate the reasons for the return on the document

Step 4 – Certified identity documents

If you have confirmed your identity with Mercer previously and your details haven't changed, please go to Step 5.

Copies of your documents can be certified by one of the following: Justice of the Peace, Solicitor, Notary Public or Member of Parliament.

For a full list of certifiers and acceptable documents and how these can be certified, please read the 'Confirmation of Identity Guide', available on www.silfunds.co.nz.

Certified documents are only valid for three months.

To the certifier: The certifier must view the original document(s) (not a fax, photocopy or scan) before writing their Full Name, Occupation, Date and Signature and make a statement to the effect that the document(s) provided are a true copy and represent the identity of the named individual.

Your withdrawal request must be submitted with one of the identification options set out below. We may have your identification documents on file; please contact us to confirm this. We may need to request new identification documents from you.

Option 1 – Electronic identity verification

Mercer as the Administration Manager has the ability to electronically verify your identity. Once we have received your withdrawal request, we will send you an SMS via our third party partner to biometrically verify your identity. To complete this method of verification, you must have a smartphone (with a front camera that is capable of taking a photo/video) and a current (not expired) version of one of the following:

New Zealand Passport

OR

New Zealand Driver Licence

If this method of identification is unsuccessful, you will be required to provide certified ID.

Option 2 – Certified copies of identity documents

Please provide a certified copy of your identity documents. Refer below for information on acceptable identity documents and who can certify them.

Preferred identification method – please select one of the following options:

- Option 1 – I would like the Administration Manager to electronically verify my identity
- Option 2 – I would like to provide the Administration Manager with certified copies of my identity documents

If you have selected Option 1, you do not need to provide certified ID now.

Provide a certified photocopy of current and valid documents

If you selected Option 2 as your preferred way for us to verify your identity, please select one of the certified identification options below.

We are only able to accept original certified copies of certified ID (i.e. the copy that has been physically certified).

These documents must be posted to us - our postal address is Mercer (N.Z.) Limited, PO Box 1849, Wellington 6140, New Zealand.

If your name has changed, please provide evidence of your name change which links your previous and current names.
